

MILK RECEIVES BAFTA NOMINATION

FOR DOCTOR WHO: DEEP BREATH

Milk VFX has been nominated for a British Academy Television Craft Award for its VFX work on the BBC's Doctor Who: Deep Breath, in the Special, Visual & Graphic Effects in 2015 category.

Milk VFX has been nominated alongside Real SFX and BBC Wales VFX who collaborated to create the sinister Half-Face Man character for this debut episode of the eighth series of Doctor Who.

The annual British Academy Television Craft Awards honour the very best behind-the-scenes talent working in television.

This year's ceremony will be held at The Brewery, London on Sunday 26th April, and will be hosted by Stephen Mangan.